Campaign SightFirst II Set

These three pins present Helen Keller as a young woman. The first shows her reading Braille, the second as a college student, and the final pin is a picture of Helen Keller visiting Mark Twain. Each pin is two inches high with a gold frame enclosing a black and white photo.

There are only 300 of each pin. They have been packaged with one of each pin in the set. These 300 sets will be sold with all proceeds going to CSF II. Initially there is a maximum of three sets per person.
